

HEADACHE - DIAGNOSIS AND MANAGEMENT FOR PHYSIOTHERAPISTS

Saturday 25th April 2015

Course speakers:

Anne-Marie Logan

Extended Scope Practitioner in Headaches,
St George's Hospital London

Anne-Marie works in an extended scope role within the Headache Service at St George's assisting with diagnosis and management of headache conditions. She is involved in the management of headache after diagnosis and as part of that carries out injections for headache.

Sarah Haynes

Clinical Specialist Physiotherapist,
Oxford University Hospital

Sarah is a manual therapist specialising in headache who works with the Consultant Neurologists in the Headache Clinic at OUH. She has many years of experience treating a wide range of headache conditions. She also carries out injections for headache as part of her role.

Course content: Overview of Headaches – Where does Cervicogenic Headache fit in?
Migraine & How to Diagnose it
Watched Headache Patient History taking
CAD & How it relates to treatment
Practical Session - Upper cervical Examination and Treatment of Headaches including;

- A range of assessment techniques to locate the problematic segment or segments
- Upper cervical treatment techniques
- Discussion of home exercises

Date & Time: Saturday 25th April 2015, 9.00am - 5.00pm

Cost: £95 including lunch

Location: Morning session: Lecture Theatre B, Hunter Wing
Afternoon session: Therapies Department, St. James Wing
St. George's Hospital, Blackshaw Road, London, SW17 0QT

Booking Enquiries: Contact Daniela Rianjongdee on 020 87254621 or Therapies.Courses@stgeorges.nhs.uk