

Post Discharge Assistance Sutton Borough

This leaflet explains what services Sutton Borough provides. If you have any further questions, please speak to the Occupational Therapist who is taking care of you.

Sutton Council Contact Centre

Occupational Therapy staff help people in Sutton of all ages who have physical, mental or learning disabilities, whether because of birth, accident, illness or ageing, to do the things they want to do.

These could be daily activities from grocery shopping or brushing teeth, to more complex activities such as transfers from a chair, bed, bath, managing your stairs, accessing your home, caring for children, succeeding in studies/work or maintaining a healthy life.

Contact number: 020 8770 6080. Email: adultdayservices@sutton.gov.uk

Care Line (MASCOT CARE ALARM)

Mascot is a private company offering 24 hours telephone support for a daily charge. It provides a Care Line button which can be worn as a necklace, brooch or wrist strap.

Upon pressing the button, the unit automatically dials into the MASCOT Telecare Response Centre using your telephone line. You will then speak to a trained and friendly operator who will discuss with you the nature of the emergency.
